The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Kansas [Mr. ROBERTS] is recognized for 5 minutes.

[Mr. ROBERTS addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.]

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. MENENDEZ] is recognized for 5 minutes.

[Mr. MENENDEZ addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.]

STAND UP AND BE COUNTED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. SCARBOROUGH] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. SCARBOROUGH. Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to be part of a process where we can actually start talking about bringing about real reform and once again changing the relationship back between the Federal Government and the States and the individuals the way our Founding Fathers intended it to be over 200 years ago.

James Madison wrote 200 years ago as he was framing the Constitution, "We have staked the entire future of the American civilization not upon the power of government, but upon the capacity of each of us to govern ourselves, control ourselves, and sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God." And Thomas Jefferson wrote that the Government that governs least governs best, and our own 10th amendment to the Constitution said, "All powers not specifically granted to the Federal Government are reserved to the States and individuals."

It feels great to be a part of this process where we can bring this new type of federalism back to Washington and to bring about real reforms, and one of the most important reforms is one of the most commonsense reforms, to make this Government do what middle-class citizens and businesses and States have had to do for over 40 years, and that is balance their checkbooks
